(Pittsburgh, PA, August 6, 2013) – Brightside Academy announced today the final summer camp tournament games for its Philadelphia school-age children.

Academy representatives worked together with the Philadelphia Police Athletic League Representative, Juan Rivera, to host the games at various city parks throughout the summer. The two final games will be held in Wilson Park at 25th Street & Snyder Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19145 on August 8, 2013 as follows:

- 9:00 a.m.-10:30 a.m. - Younger school-age: Woodland #1 vs. Front & Erie
- 10:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m. - Older school-age: Woodland #1 vs. Harrowgate

The games will be followed by a celebration at 12:00 noon including a cook out, giveaways and the presentation of medals and trophy to the tournament's third, second and first place winners.

"We developed the tournament to teach school-age children about teamwork and sportsmanship. They have looked forward to every single game since the program kickoff. It's an exciting conclusion to weeks of summer fun for both children and staff," stated Donna Piekarski, Philadelphia Regional Director.
